CELEBRATE OUR HISTORY!

Fort Myers Beach has been a favorite beach town for generations of families from all around the world. The Historic Preservation Board is honoring the traditions of island style on Estero Island with a plaque program that highlights our historic structures and vistas. Owners of buildings constructed prior to 1960 that retain some of their original character and charm are invited to participate in the celebration by voluntarily displaying a historic plaque on their structure. This plaque program does not regulate your property in any way. If a property owner desires regulation and protection of a qualifying historic structure, they may seek it through a separate process.

HOW DO I GET A PLAQUE FOR MY PROPERTY?

The Historic Preservation Board has identified four categories of historic importance for structures, vistas and archaeological resources. The property owner may follow the links below and fill out an application receive a plaque identifying their structure as one contributing to the historic interest in our community. Applying for the plaque program DOES NOT subject the participating property to any regulations for future use, modification, sale or demolition of the property, unless the property is of high historic significance (like the Mound House) and the owner specifically requests such a classification. You have ownership of your plaque and are encouraged to visibly display it on your historic structure.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

The benefit for each property owner is to share in the pride of our unique island heritage and style. In highlighting the value of our history, cottage design and community character, we hope to encourage appreciation and voluntary preservation of the historic resources that add interest to our community.

For those who specifically choose to apply for the highest category of historic importance, financial incentives are available through our Land Development Code that may include relief from FEMA flood plain restrictions and the ability to improve the structure beyond the 50% rule. A representative of the town's Community Development Department will gladly explain this to any interested property owner.

CELEBRATE! APPRECIATE! PRESERVE!

We hope that you will consider participating in this voluntary program to honor our island history and encourage preservation for future generations to enjoy. We appreciate your support!
